Anthem of the Tokyo University of Marine Science and Technology

一、 海を拓（ひら）き 海から学ぶ
自由の心と 我慢の二文字
海から世界へ はばたこう
若者よ 集まれ 海洋大学へ
好きなことを 好きなだけ
学べることは 幸せ者だよ
それが出来るのは 現在（いま）
現在は すぐに過去

Setting out to sea we learn
The meaning of liberty and endurance
Across the sea we set out for the world
We come to Tokyo Kaiyo Daigaku
To pursue our interests as much as we want
For that is happiness indeed
Now is the time to do it
For the present quickly turns to past

二、 海を信じ 命あずけて
汲めどもつきせぬ ロマンを求め
時代（とき）は正（まさ）に 若者の
鉄の腕（かいな）と 英智に宿る
好きなことを 好きなだけ
学べることは 幸せ者だよ
それが出来るのは 現在
現在は すぐに過去

We trust the sea with our lives
On a never-ending journey
The future lies in our
Strong arms and our wisdom
To pursue our interests as much as we want
For that is happiness indeed
Now is the time to do it
For the present quickly turns to past

三、 海を興（おこ）し 海から学ぶ
不屈の闘魂 久遠（くおん）の平和
海から世界へ はばたこう
若者よ 集まれ 海洋大学へ
好きなことを 好きなだけ
学べることは 幸せ者だよ
それが出来るのは 現在
現在は すぐに過去

From the sea we benefit and learn
Our indomitable spirit and everlasting peace
Across the sea we set out for the world
Young people come to Tokyo Kaiyo Daigaku
To pursue our interests as much as we want
For that is happiness indeed
Now is the time to do it
For the present quickly turns to past

1-5 Scholarships for regular students

The following scholarships are available for international students (Japanese government scholarship students and students dispatched by foreign governments are excepted).

1 Scholarships awarded upon recommendation by the university

Candidates to this type of scholarships are required to take an interview between April and May. Candidates undergo a first round (applications) and second round (interviews) of selection, after which they are ranked by Global Education and Research Promotion Committee WG Outstanding students are then recommended in this order for a scholarship.

Please note that every student recommended does not necessarily receive such scholarships.

Self-financed international students who did not take the interview even though they were offered the chance to do so will be ineligible to apply for scholarships awarded upon the university's recommendation until the next academic year.

Please refer to the university's website for details.

<https://www.kaiyodai.ac.jp/international/foreignstudents/>

2 Private scholarships awarded through direct application

Information about this type of scholarships is announced on the university's website. Please check it regularly.

2 Fee exemption

Self-financed international students (at the undergraduate or graduate level only) with outstanding grades may apply for a fee exemption when facing economic difficulties.

In general, applications must be submitted by late April for the first semester, and by late October for the second semester. Applicants must gather and submit the necessary documents before a specific deadline, after which their applications can no longer be accepted.

The decision to exempt a student is taken after a thorough examination of the application and the candidate's academic performance. Exemption may apply to either the full amount or half the amount of tuition fees. Results are sent by mail to the candidate at the end of July (first semester) and in late January (second semester).

Specific information about the necessary documents, application deadlines and other details is posted on the notice boards and online. Please note that the procedure may change from one academic year to another. For more details, please contact the Scholarships Section at the Student Support Division.

1-7 Japanese language education

The following courses on the Japanese language and other subjects related to Japan are conducted for foreign students enrolled in our university, in addition to extracurricular classes. Please see the notice boards for more information.

1 Japanese language

Integrated (comprehensive) Japanese I – IV

Applied Japanese I – II

These courses focus on Japanese needed at the university level.

Japanese affairs I - IV

These courses focus on basic subjects (Japanese history, culture, politics, economy, technology and the environment) needed at the undergraduate level.

3 Introduction to marine industries in Japan

Ocean industries in Japan (Shinagawa Campus)

This course provides basic knowledge about ocean industries in Japan, including ocean energy, maritime transport, the impact of maritime transport on the earth and technologies to prevent it.

1-8 Tutor system

The tutor system was established to help newly-enrolled international students to familiarize themselves quickly with the university's environment. Tutors help international students with their academic and research activities, in principle during the first year following admission. Each student is asked to submit a monthly report on tutor-related activities to the International Students Section or Student Support Section. The report includes an evaluation of the tutor's support, and must be signed by the academic supervisor.

Every year, new students are invited to attend an orientation course together with their tutor. The information is displayed on notice boards.

Living in Japan

2-1

Various procedures related to personal identification for international students

According to the laws of Japan, foreigners who wish to live in Japan must complete various procedures related to residence at the Immigration Bureau and at their local municipal office service counter. For more information on these procedures, please check the Immigration Services Agency website below.

<https://www.moj.go.jp/isa/index.html>

(Definition of the “International Student”)

The definition of the “international students” is the foreign students enrolled in Japanese universities under the resident status of “student” as defined by the Immigration Control Act.

Foreign nationals with another status, such as “dependent”, “spouse or child of Japanese national” or “long-term resident” may enroll and study at a Japanese university within the limits of activities permitted under the Immigration Control Act, but such persons are not designated as “international students.” They are also excluded from scholarships designated for the students who have “students” resident status.

1 Residence management system

● Residence card

Foreign residents living in Japan for more than three months (mid- or long-term stay) are issued residence cards, while special permanent residents are issued special permanent resident certificates. You will be issued a residence card if there are any changes in your landing permit or visa status, or when you renew your visa. If there is any change in the information written on your residence card—such as (1) your name, date of birth, sex, nationality/region; and (2) renewal of the period of validity—or if your card is stolen or lost, please complete the designated procedures at the Immigration Bureau within 14 days. However, procedures related to a change of address or to your special permanent resident certificate should be completed at the municipal office. Please note that your residence card is valid until the expiration date of your visa.

● Residence records

Residence records list and certify such information as your address, the constitution of your household (not only the people who live together, but all those the household supports financially) and the head of your household (the person who represents the household, or the person who financially supports the household).

Records are kept for foreign residents (such as special permanent residents and those issued residence cards) as well. If your address or the constitution of your household changes, you or a representative of the household should complete the designated notification procedures. If you need a copy of your residence record or a certificate of items registered in that record, please bring some form of personal identification—such as your residence card or special permanent resident certificate—and file a request at your local municipal office.

2 Visa renewal

The period of stay and renewal period for international students depend on the years of your course of training, as follows: Four years and three months; four years; three years and three months, three years; two years and three months; two years; one year and three months; one year; six months; and three months. This period of stay can be extended upon completing the designated procedures. Please complete these procedures sometime between three months before the expiration date and the expiration date at the Tokyo Regional Immigration Services Bureau (see Appendix E). After completing the renewal procedures, please bring your residence card and passport together with copies to the International Students Section. Chart 2.1 shows the documents you need to renew your status of residence.

Chart 2.1: Documents Required When Renewing Your Visa

Applicant	Status	(a)	(b)+(c)	(d)	(e)	(f)	(g)
Student	Undergraduate or graduate student	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	No	Yes
	Research student	Yes	Yes	Yes	No	Yes	Yes

(a) Passport and residence card

(b) Application for extension of period of stay (for applicant, parts 1-2-3)

The form can be downloaded from the Immigration Services Agency website.

<https://www.moj.go.jp/isa/applications/status/student.html>

(c) Application for extension of period of stay (for an organization, parts 1-2): Please apply in advance at the International Students Section.

(d) Student registration certificate

(e) Grade transcript

(f) Certificate documenting research activities

(g) Revenue stamp (administrative fee)

Note: In any of the above-mentioned cases, if it becomes clear that further screening is necessary for reasons such as poor study results or practices, additional documents certifying financial support, a resume, or certification of final academic background may be required.

3 Leaving Japan temporarily and re-entry permits

International students who leave Japan temporarily—such as for a summer vacation, to return to their home country, travel to neighboring countries, or participate in a study tour or conference overseas—must submit a Temporary Leave Notification (for travel abroad) signed by academic supervisor to the International Students Section. Please check the Temporary Leave Notification (for travel abroad) from the website.

As a rule, as long as you have a valid passport and residence card, a re-entry permit is not required if you return to Japan within one year after leaving (or within two years in the case of special permanent residents). However, if your visa expires in less than one year after leaving Japan, please return to Japan before the expiration date.

If you will be returning to Japan more than a year after leaving but within your permitted period of stay, you must apply for a re-entry permit before you leave Japan. The maximum valid period for a re-entry permit is five years within your permitted period of stay (or six years in the case of special permanent residents).

4 Changing your type of visa (status of residence)

If you wish to engage in different activities from those stated in the visa you are currently holding, you must apply for Change of Status of Residence at the Immigration Bureau. Please confirm with the Immigration Bureau about the procedure.

5 Visa implications of a leave of absence

According to Article 22-4 of the Immigration Control and Refugee Recognition Act, if a foreign citizen residing in Japan with a specified status of residence (in this case, “Student” status) has failed to continue to engage in the activities described in the status of residence for three months or more (excluding cases where the person has justifiable reason for not engaging in the activities while residing in Japan), the status of residence is subject to being revoked.

International students who take a leave of absence must return to their home country obtain a different status of residence during the leave period. For international students with “Student” status, a leave of absence for financial reasons is not a justifiable reason (in other words, international students taking a leave of absence for financial reasons are not allowed to stay in Japan to engage in part-time work or other non-academic activities). If you plan to take a leave of absence, please contact the International Students Section immediately.

2-2 Health insurance and other types of insurance

1 National Health Insurance

Japan has a National Health Insurance program to limit the individual cost of medical expenses. All international students residing in Japan for more than three months are required to enroll in the National Health Insurance. If you have not yet enrolled, please complete the enrollment procedures detailed here immediately. Please note that since April 2010, those applying for a change or extension of their status of residence at the Immigration Bureau are required to show proof of their enrollment in the National Health Insurance scheme by presenting a valid health insurance card.

Enrollment Procedures

To enroll in the National Health Insurance scheme, you must take your residence card to your local municipal office and complete the designated procedures. You will then be issued a National Health Insurance card.

If you did not pay any Japanese taxes in the fiscal year prior to your enrollment for the reason that you did not reside in Japan, you will be asked to pay lower premiums and should complete the necessary forms (“Gengaku Kan-i Shinsei”) to receive this discount. If an application for the reduced rate for non-taxpayers is not filed, the basic insurance premiums will be about ¥30,000. To complete these procedures, you will need your student ID card and student registration certificate.

In addition, if your address, name, or head of household change due to reasons such as relocation or marriage, please notify the National Health Insurance section of your local municipal office within 14 days. To complete notification procedures, you must have your health insurance card and your residence card.

Insurance Premiums

Insurance premiums vary slightly depending on the municipality of residence. Annual premiums for those who have not paid Japanese taxes the previous year and who applied for the “Gengaku Kan-i Shinsei” are around ¥10,000 and can be paid in monthly installments or in a lump-sum.

Medical Benefits

If you receive basic medical treatment for an illness, injury or dental treatment and are enrolled in the National Health Insurance scheme, your municipality covers 70% of your medical expenses, leaving 30% to be paid by yourself. Please note that certain specialized treatments may not be covered by the national health insurance.

High Medical Expenses Coverage

If treatment costs borne by the insured member at a given medical institution exceed ¥35,400 in a given month, the excess is in principle reimbursed by the municipality.

Lump-Sum Childbirth Benefit

When a National Health Insurance member or the spouse of a member gives birth, a lump sum childbirth benefit is provided. In addition, low-income households can apply for other pregnancy and childbirth-related subsidy programs. Please consult the National Health Insurance section at your local municipal office.

2 Private insurance

Personal Accident Insurance for Students Pursuing Education and Research / Liability Insurance

This insurance plan covers injuries incurred during classes/research at the university, in extracurricular activities, or while commuting. The student education/research accident insurance plan is referred to as Gakken-sai in Japanese. Supplementary insurance coverage is also offered as part of Gakken-sai, including liability insurance for on-campus incidents. Enrollment procedures can be completed together with entrance procedures for newly entering students, and on an ongoing basis for students in the second year of study and higher. Reference documents and application forms are available at the Student Affairs Department (Student Support Division).

Personal Accident Insurance for Students (Gakken-sai) and Liability Insurance

Insurance name	Type of insurance	Insurance premiums*
Personal Accident Insurance for Students	Only injuries incurred on campus, during academic activities, or while commuting to/from the university	¥1,000 (1 year) ¥1,750 (2 years) ¥2,600 (3 years) ¥3,300 (4 years)
Liability Insurance for Students	For damages caused on campus, during academic activities, or while commuting to/from the university	¥340 (1 year) ¥680 (2 years) ¥1,020 (3 years) ¥1,360 (4 years)

Note: The enrollment period is until the student's expected year of graduation (students who repeat a year must re-enroll)

In recent years, a growing number of international students have faced hospitalization due to illness or injury, damage to personal property due to fire and water leaks, and compensation claims by landlords. Such problems may force the student to bear unanticipated expenses and create a distraction from study. Therefore, the university highly recommends that all international students enroll in a comprehensive individual insurance scheme (Inbound Futai Gakuso). If you would like to enroll, please consult with the International Students Section about the enrollment procedure.

2-3 Student life

1 Housing

Housing is an important part of a satisfying and comfortable university experience for international students. Some international students at TUMSAT live in student dormitories on campus, while others choose to rent a private apartment.

When moving into a private apartment, it is very common in the Tokyo area to pay the equivalent of up to two months' rent as a security deposit (part of which is returned to the tenant when moving out), a similar amount in "key money," and the equivalent of at least one month's rent to the real estate agent as a service charge (when renewing the lease, which normally takes place every two years, it is common to impose a service charge equivalent to one month's rent). Please note that apartments in Japan usually come unfurnished.

● Housing Guarantee Program for International Students

(<https://www.jees.or.jp/crifs/index.htm>)

When renting a private apartment, a guarantor is usually required. If you intend to ask your academic supervisor to be your guarantor, please use this program. By enrolling in this program, you are automatically covered by a tenant's liability insurance in case of accidents such as fire or water leakage. Since this liability insurance does not cover compensation for personal belongings damaged in a fire or in a case of water leakage, it is recommended that you also enroll in a separate fire insurance plan. The insurance premiums of this guarantee program are ¥4,000 for a one-year contract, or ¥8,000 for a two-year contract. When renewing your rental lease, please renew your Housing Guarantee Program for International Students as well. Moving to a different apartment requires re-enrollment in the program. When canceling a rental contract, you should notify the International Students Section as soon as possible.

The procedure for renting a private apartment is as follows:

1. Select an apartment through a real estate agency.
2. Pick up an insurance-premium payment slip at the International Students Section and pay the premium at a post office.
3. Bring your receipt to the International Students Section and ask for a membership certificate.
4. Ask your academic supervisor to complete the joint guarantor section of the rental contract.
5. Submit the contract to the real estate agency.
6. Upon finalization of the contract, bring a copy to the International Students Section.

2 Dormitories for international students

3 Formalities for moving in/out

There are several points to keep in mind when looking for or changing rental accommodation in Japan; below are a number of things we recommend that you take into account.

Before You Move Out of Your Accommodation

- When you have decided to move out, read the lease contract carefully so that you clearly understand the cancellation conditions and follow the proper steps in cancelling your contract.
- Cancel all services contracted at your current residence for electricity, gas, fixed telephone, and Internet, and pay the fees for the month of your move. Carefully confirm the payment procedures for the final month and make sure to pay in full.
- Before you move out, clean the accommodation. Remember to dispose of your garbage.
- Important: Remember that in Japan the deposit is not always returned in full. Please settle your account when you cancel your rental contract.

Before You Move In to Your New Accommodation

- Before you move in, inspect the interior carefully and report any problems concerning the interior or fixtures that might become an issue when you move out, such as scratches on the floor or on the walls.

Important: What to Do on the Moving Day or Immediately After

Not completing the following procedures properly will cause problems within and outside the university. Please be sure to complete these procedures when moving.

1. Please bring your residence card to the municipal office at your new address and complete the designated change-of-address procedures within 14 days of moving to your new address. Also inform the International Students Section of your change of address.
2. Return your current National Health Insurance card to the municipal office of your former address (sending the card by mail is acceptable). Complete new enrollment procedures for National Health Insurance at the municipal office of your new address. If you maintain health insurance membership in two locations, you will be billed twice. If you move within the same city, simply complete the address change procedure.
3. Obtain a request form for forwarding your mail at the post office and file notification of your change of address.
4. Complete change-of-address procedures for your bank account, mobile phone (if you have one), and credit cards (if you have any).
5. Change your address by the university academic system “Live Campus.”

4 Permission to engage in part-time work

If you work part time, you must apply for Permission to Engage in Activity Other Than That Permitted at the Tokyo Regional Immigration Bureau. Part-time work by international students is permitted in cases that meet the conditions listed below. Note, however, that international students will only be given permission if it is thought that the part-time work in which they plan to engage will not obstruct their original objective as international students.

- Working hours: 28 hours or less per week (during long-term holidays, up to eight hours per day).
- Part-time work in the adult entertainment industry is not permitted.
- Tax-exemption programs are available if an Application Form for an Income Tax Convention is submitted at the tax office. For more information, please ask your local tax office.

(note: After you receive the permit to engage in part-time work, please file a Report of activities other than those specified under visa status, as well as a copy of your permit, with the International Students Section.)

5 Student discounts, commuter passes and coupon tickets

Student Discounts (regular students only)

If undergraduate or graduate students travel more than 100 kilometers, they are eligible for a student discount boarding pass (called gakuwari – student discount – in Japanese), which allows for discounts of as much as 20% of the regular fare. Non-regular students are not eligible for this program. You can obtain a student discount certificate from the automated certificate issuing machine located on campus.

Commuter Passes (regular students only)

Undergraduate and graduate students can purchase student commuter passes for use on trains and buses upon presenting a student commuter pass certificate, which can be obtained from the automated certificate issuing machine. Please note that only one certificate is issued per year.

Student commuter passes can be bought at the station where you usually board or any ticket vending location between your boarding station and the university; you will need to show your student ID card and the relevant certificate (please be sure to write the necessary information on the back of your student ID card). If there is a change in your address or the route you use to get to the university, please notify the Student Support Section.

*As of April 1, 2024, the school commuter pass certificate will be checked only once when purchasing a new commuter pass. After that, commuter passes can be purchased continuously from ticket vending machines.

Non-regular students are not eligible for student commuter passes. They should purchase a general commuter pass or frequent user coupon tickets. Please note that it is punishable by law to purchase commuter passes illegally or to lend your pass to another person.

2-4 Disaster prevention (on/off campus)

1 Earthquakes

Because of its location at the juncture of several tectonic plates, Japan is often subject to earthquakes. On March 11th, 2011, a massive earthquake and tsunami hit the Pacific coast of northeastern Japan. Other recent disasters include the Great Hanshin Earthquake of 1995 (Kobe and Osaka region), and the Niigata earthquake of 2004. People who live in Japan should be prepared to deal calmly with natural disasters, for example by keeping themselves informed of the latest evacuation routes. In case of a disaster, Japan's national broadcaster NHK relays information and advice in English and other languages through television, radio and the internet.

Preparing for earthquakes

To keep damage from earthquakes to a minimum, it is important to be prepared.

- Secure furniture that may topple over easily, such as drawers and bookshelves, with braces. Do not leave items in high places.
- Keep a fire extinguisher at hand, or make sure you know where the nearest one is located.
- Prepare an emergency backpack (with items such as first-aid equipment, daily items and valuables). In particular, be prepared to take your passport, residence card, and health insurance card with you in case of an evacuation.
- Participate actively in disaster-prevention drills conducted by your local community or university.
- If you live with family, make sure to know each other's contact information and decide in advance where you should meet in the event of a major disaster.

When an earthquake strikes

Violent tremors can last for several minutes, and may be followed by powerful aftershocks. When an earthquake strikes, remember the following points to minimize potential consequences, such as fires and serious injuries.

1. Turn off all sources of fire or heat (gas equipment and related appliances).
2. Open a door or window to secure an exit. If you decide to go outside, proceed with caution and beware of falling objects.
3. Protect yourself by crawling under a table or any other type of sturdy furniture.
4. Get accurate information from official sources such as TV or radio.
5. Check on the safety of your neighbors and assist them if you can.
6. If you are outdoors, stay away from objects or structures that may collapse (walls, gate posts, etc.).

The evacuation sites on campus are as follows:

- Shinagawa Campus: main ground (soccer pitch)
- Etchujima Campus: Meiji-Marui Square

Please be sure to check the location of the nearest evacuation site in the neighborhood where you live.

Example of items to prepare in case of disaster

Mineral water, preserved foods, flashlight, undergarments, medicine, sturdy gloves, pocket handwarmers, medical masks, towels, tissues, matches, candles, paper cups, paper plates, and a portable radio.

2 Fire prevention

Japanese houses are traditionally made of materials that burn easily. Please be particularly careful about extinguishing items that may cause fire, such as heating equipment, cigarettes and gas appliances, when you leave your home or go to sleep.

What to do if a fire breaks out

- Dial 119 for the fire department; alert your neighbors and ask for help in extinguishing the fire.
- If it is possible to extinguish the fire within the first few minutes, you should attempt to do so. If the fire has spread over a wide area or has reached the ceiling, focus your attention on escaping rather than working to put out the fire.
- If a pan with oil in it catches fire, do not pour water on the flames. Use a fire extinguisher, or cover the flames with a wet towel or piece of cloth.
- To avoid inhaling toxic fumes, cover your mouth with a wet towel and crouch low while making your escape.

3 Safety and Legal Precautions

Japan is generally considered a safe country, but you should still be careful. Please avoid walking alone at night or letting strangers into your room. Try not to go to places with few people, especially late at night.

Even if you are not familiar with Japanese laws, breaking the law may result in arrest or deportation.

Please pay attention to the following points:

- You must carry your residence card with you at all times.
- If you work part-time without permission or do work that is not allowed, it will be a violation of immigration law.
- Riding a bicycle with two people, riding without a light at night, or riding with an umbrella on a rainy day is illegal. You may be stopped by the police or fined.
- Using a bicycle that is not registered may make you suspected of theft.
- Carrying dangerous items such as knives may be punished, even for self-defense.
- It is illegal to lend or borrow ID cards such as your residence card, student ID, or health insurance card.

< About bicycles >

- Always lock your bicycle to prevent theft.
- Write your name and contact information on your bicycle.
- When you buy a bicycle, please complete the anti-theft registration at the store.
- If you receive a bicycle from a friend or senior, prepare a transfer document and update the registration at a bicycle shop.
- Do not take abandoned bicycles, as they may be stolen.

Drugs and narcotics

Japan has a zero-tolerance policy on the use of drugs and stimulants such as marijuana, cocaine, heroin and LSD. Drugs have adverse consequences on physical and mental health, and lead to addictions that may require long periods of rehabilitation and medical treatment. Drug-related offences usually result in incarceration and/or deportation.

Dial 110 (police department) to report a crime, theft, traffic accident or other emergencies

Calls are answered around the clock.

To call from a public phone:

- pick up the receiver, push the emergency button if available, or dial 110
- explain the emergency
- state your name and exact location

Harassment

Counselors designated by the university are available for confidential advice on harassment matters. Their names and contact information are available on the following page:

<https://www.kaiyodai.ac.jp/en/campuslife/inquirycounter/>

<Avoiding becoming involved in criminal activities>

There have been many cases recently of international students becoming involved in criminal activities, especially through social media. By understanding the dangers of social media, you can stay safe and legal while studying in Japan.

[Precautions on the Use of Social Media]

- Everything you post online can be seen by the entire world. Please be careful when using social media platforms such as X, Facebook, Instagram, WhatsApp, WeChat, QQ, Soul, KakaoTalk, and Tinder.
- Avoid being tricked into becoming involved in crimes by people pretending to be your friends or kind strangers on social media. Never share personal information, including your passwords, student ID card, driver's license, health insurance card, individual identification number (My Number) card, bank account information, or residence card.
- If someone approaches you on social media with an "easy way to make money," or another similar offer, do not accept such offers lightly. If they ask you to sell your bank account or mobile phone to them, pick up packages or withdraw money for them, etc., there is a very high chance that doing so will involve you in a crime.
- If your Japanese bank account is used for criminal purposes, it will be frozen. Financial institutions share information about accounts that have been frozen for this reason, and you will be unable to open another bank account in Japan. You may also be arrested and face penalties such as deportation or imprisonment if found to be involved in a crime.
