To all new students

Tokyo University of Marine Science and Technology

Concerning Voluntary Non-attendance in Order to Prevent Expansion of Transmission of the Novel Coronavirus (A Request)

Forth announcement [Extension of the period: Third time]

To prevent the spread of the novel coronavirus, the university request all students to refrain from attendance. All new students are also requested to refrain from attendance unless they have a pressing reason for attendance.

As we informed on April 9, 27 and May 15, students are required to refrain from attendance, however, the university has decided to re-extend the non-attendance period until Tuesday, June 30, 2020 in consideration of current situation.

If it is necessary to make a new decision based on changes in the situation following the expiration of this period, we will notify you through the following website. Please confirm the website regularly. Regarding the necessary procedures during Non-attendance period, please refer “Inquiry and contact information” on the website. In addition, please answer our survey or emails if you receive it.
