Welcome to the Tokyo University of Marine Science and Technology - TUMSAT

Doctoral Courses for International Students

TUMSAT offers the following two Doctoral degree course programs for international students. Graduates are awarded either a Doctor of Marine Science degree or a Doctor of Engineering degree from TUMSAT.

Doctoral Course:

1. Course of Applied Marine Biosciences
2. Course of Applied Marine Environmental Studies

The programs specialize in the following study areas:

Course of Applied Marine Biosciences

- 1) Applied Bioscience
- 2) Advanced Food Science and Technology
- 3) Applied Bio-engineering

Course of Applied Marine Environmental Studies

- 1) Marine Ecosystem Studies
- 2) Ocean Science and Technology
- 3) Applied Ocean Engineering
- 4) Marine Safety Technology
- 5) Logistics Engineering
- 6) Marine Machinery and Systems
- 7) Industrial Policy and Culture
- 8) Marine Exploring and Utilization

≪Security export control≫

Tokyo University of Marine Science and Technology (TUMSAT) has established the "TUMSAT's Security Export Control Regulations (SECR)" in accordance with the Foreign Exchange and Foreign Trade Act of Japan. The SECR has a strict screening process for accepting international students, especially regarding the transfer of technology and export of goods.
Suppose your intended research or educational activities involve regulated technologies or items under the Foreign Exchange and Foreign Trade Act of Japan. In that case, there may be restrictions on your studies or research. In some cases, you may not be able to participate in specific programs.
Before submitting your application, please consult with your proposed supervisor to confirm whether you can conduct your desired research under the SECR.
For more information about Japan's security export control system, please visit the Ministry of Economy, Trade and Industry (METI) website:
https://www.meti.go.jp/policy/anpo/englishpage.html

≪Important Notices≫

Measures for those with influenza or other infectious diseases

★ Precautions regarding infectious diseases subject to suspension of attendance under the School Health and Safety Act:

On the day of the examination, examinees who have an infectious disease (influenza, measles, new coronavirus infection, etc.) for which attendance is suspended under the School Health and Safety Act and have not yet recovered will not be allowed to take the examination, as there is a risk of infection among other examinees and supervisors. However, this does not apply to those who have been certified by a school physician or other physician as having no risk of infection due to their medical condition.
Please note that the University will not conduct a follow-up examination or refund the entrance examination fee due to the above-mentioned reasons.

All examinees are requested to take good care of their health and prevent infection so that they will be in perfect physical condition on the day of the examination.

Please check the latest information on our website and apply after understanding the possibility of changes.

Applicants affected by the "Reiwa 8 Kumamoto Earthquake" should refer to the following page.

◎Admission policy

Doctoral Course:

In the doctoral course of the Graduate School of Marine Science and Technology, we seek students who can flexibly respond to the times and society and creatively confront various global-scale issues related to the oceans in order to solve them, and who have the drive and capability to pioneer leading-edge areas in the marine field and the fields of its related industries.

Course of Applied Marine Biosciences:

We seek students who aim for solutions to various issues pertaining to applied bioscience, such as living marine resources and food resources, and furthermore the conservation and sustainable utilization of same, who are interested in research into the elucidation of the functionality of these or the elucidation or utilization of the characteristics and processes of biological activities, and who also have the drive to set themes pertaining to them by themselves and to be able to develop solutions and applications.

Course of Applied Marine Environmental Studies:

We seek students who have the ability to arrive at solutions to issues by means of addressing them using multilateral thinking, with regard to state-of-the-art science and technology pertaining to technologies for the investigation and conservation/restoration of marine environments and the highly efficient use of logistics and energy in marine transportation and harbors, from the viewpoint of understanding, conserving and using the oceans.

◎Application

1. Number of Places Available

●For enrollment in April 2027

Course	No. of places
Course of Applied Marine Biosciences	14
Course of Applied Marine Environmental Studies	9

●For enrollment in October 2027

Course	No. of places
Course of Applied Marine Biosciences	Some
Course of Applied Marine Environmental Studies	Some

Note: The number of places indicates the total maximum number of students that will be admitted to the course, including those proceeding to the course from a Master's Course undertaken at the University as well as those admitted by passing the general admission, the admission for international students, and the special admission for full-time employees.

2. Admission Requirements

Those applying for admission to the Doctoral Course must meet one of the following requirements. (For those applying for enrollment in October 2027, replace "March 2027" in (1) to (8) below with "September 2027."
It is also a requirement for the application to contact the instructor to be instructed before applying and to obtain the consent of the instructor to take the examination.

(1) Be a holder or be expected by March 2027 to be a holder of a Master's degree or a professional degree (as defined in Article 5.2 of the Ministry of Education's ordinance No. 9 of 1953 on school regulations; the same definition shall apply hereinafter).
(2) Be a holder or be expected by March 2027 to be a holder of a Master's degree or an equivalent of a professional degree outside Japan.

For those who apply for the admission for full-time employees	⑫Certificate of Employment	Submit a document (in any format) that clearly states your term of employment and employment status. Such document must have been created by the head of your workplace (person in a position equivalent to human resources manager) specifically to meet the application requirement regarding employment. If you are not an employee, ask a third party, such as the person in charge of an industry association, who prove the actual working conditions.
	⑬Letter of recommendation * Uploaded in PROCESS 2	Please submit the original documents uploaded in ⑧ of PROCESS 2.

* 1 If the submitted documents are incomplete, they will not be accepted. No changes or additions to the application documents after acceptance are permitted.

 2 For documents that are not in Japanese or English, a Japanese or English translation of the document must be attached.

*3 If the application contents are not true, you cannot take the examination. In addition, even after announcing successful applicants or after enrollment, we may cancel or cancel enrollment.

* 4 With respect to submitted documentation, especially graduation certificates and official academic transcripts, issuers or other related organizations will be contacted for confirmation if necessary. In addition, you may be asked to submit additional documents.

* 5 Tokyo University of Marine Science and Technology manage the above personal information responsibly.

PROCESS 5	Printing of Applicant's ID Card for examination

Please log in to the Internet application system and print out your Applicant's ID Card during the period in which the Applicant's ID Card can be printed. Please note that the Applicant's ID Card will not be sent from the University, so please print it out on your own. In addition, information such as the examination schedule will be displayed, so please read it carefully.

Date and time when the Applicant's ID Card can be printed
: Around 3:00 p.m.on December 22, 2026(Wednesday)

[Notes on the Applicant's ID Card]

- After printing the Applicant's ID Card, be sure to check the contents. If it is different from the registered application or if you can't print, please contact the entrance examination inquiries (Admissions Section II : n-nyusi2@o.kaiyodai.ac.jp) by December 24, 2026(Thursday,) .

- The "Receipt number" displayed in PROCESS 2 is not the examination number. On the day of the examination, you will not be able to take the exam with your "Receipt number".
- On the day of the examination, the Applicant's ID Card displayed on a smartphone etc. screen is not allowed. Be sure to bring a printed Applicant's ID Card.

※There is a possibility that the Admission schedule and Examination Method will be changed.

6. Examination Method

Admission for international students:

Applicants are evaluated on the basis of a written examination, oral examination, official academic transcripts, and other submitted documents. In addition, for the written exam "Special Subject", you can select the language used for the exam from Japanese and English.

(1) Examination Subjects

Course	Written Examination	Oral Examination
i) Applied Marine Biosciences ii) Applied Marine Environmental Studies	Special subject of the prospective supervisor who gave consent to take the examination Please see Prospectus of Supervisor's Specialization field in Doctoral Course	Including making a presentation on the applicant's Master's thesis, etc.

(2) Date and Place of Examination

	Written Examination	Oral Examination	Location
Date and Place	February 2, 2027 (Tuesday) 10:00 a.m. to 11:30 a.m.	February 2, 2027 (Tuesday) 1:00 p.m.	Shinagawa Campus

Special admission for full-time employees:

Applicants are evaluated comprehensively on the basis of an academic ability (oral) examination, business performance, official academic transcripts, and other submitted documents.

(1) Examination Subjects

Course	Oral Examination
i) Applied Marine Biosciences ii) Applied Marine Environmental Studies	Including making a presentation on the applicant's Master's thesis, research results, etc.

(2) Date and Place of Examination

	Oral Examination	Location *
Date and Place	February 2, 2027 (Tuesday) the time specified by the course As shown above or the date and time specified for the course (sometime between January 28 and February 1)	Shinagawa Campus or Etchujima Campus or Implementation by web conferencing system

* Oral examination of Special admission for full-time employees may be conducted using remote conference systems. In that case we will contact the applicant from each course in detail.

7. Handling of Misconduct

The following actions constitute misconduct. If you commit misconduct, you will be instructed on the spot to stop taking the exam and leave the room, and you will not be permitted to take any further exams. In addition, the results of all exams you have taken will be invalidated.

Depending on the circumstances, we may also take measures such as filing a police report regarding the misconduct.

(1) Intentionally entering false information on the application form or admission ticket (e.g., uploading a photo of someone other than the examinee during online application registration), or intentionally writing false information on the answer sheet (e.g., writing another person's name or examinee number on the answer sheet).

(2) Cheating (e.g., looking at cheat sheets, reference books, or other examinees' answers, or being told answers by another person).

(3) Telling answers to other examinees or assisting them in cheating.

(4) Taking the distributed question booklet out of the exam room before the end of the exam time.

(5) Taking the answer sheet out of the exam room.

(6) Opening the question booklet or starting to answer before the instruction "Begin answering."

(7) Using electronic devices such as mobile phones, smartphones, wearable devices (e.g., smartwatches and smart glasses), tablets, electronic dictionaries, IC recorders, earphones, or music players during the exam.

※ Earphones are considered to be in use if they are worn in the ears. (If you need to use a hearing aid or similar device during the exam due to illness, injury, disability, etc., you must apply for accommodations for taking the exam; see "4. Prior Consultation for Applicants with Disabilities, etc.")

(8) Using aids such as rulers, compasses, calculators, abacuses, or graph paper during the exam, unless permission to use them has been granted.

(9) Failing to follow the instruction "Stop answering. Put down your pencils and erasers," by continuing to hold your pencil or eraser or continuing to answer.

In addition to (1) through (9) above, the following actions may also be treated as misconduct. If you fail to follow instructions and are determined to have committed misconduct, you will be treated in the same manner as under (1) through (9) above.

(10) Wearing or holding, rather than putting away in your bag, electronic devices such as mobile phones, smartphones, wearable devices (e.g., smartwatches and smart glasses), tablets, electronic dictionaries, IC recorders, earphones, or music players, or aids such as rulers, compasses, and calculators (unless permission to use them has been granted), during the exam.

※ Electronic devices with communication functions (mobile phones, smartphones, wearable devices such as smartwatches and smart glasses, tablets, etc.) will be considered to be in use, and thus constitute misconduct, if they are not stored in your bag during the exam, even if they are turned off. (Devices kept in clothing pockets, etc. will likewise be considered to be in use and constitute misconduct.)

(11) Disrupting the progress of the exam, such as by allowing the sound of a mobile phone, watch, etc. (incoming call, alarm, vibration, etc.) to ring for an extended period during the exam.

(12) Making false statements regarding exam-related matters that would benefit yourself or other examinees.

(13) Engaging in behavior that disturbs other examinees at the exam venue.

(14) Failing to follow the instructions of proctors, etc. at the exam venue.

(15) Engaging in any other act that may undermine the fairness of the exam.

8. Enrollment Date

・April 1, 2027 (Thursday) or October 1, 2027 (Friday) .

9. Enrollment Procedures

・March 8, 2027 (Monday) - March 16, 2027 (Tuesday) .
Details will be mailed together with the notification of acceptance.

※Those who are accepted for admission in October 2026 will take the admission procedures in September 2026.

10. Notification of Results

The results of the entrance exams for the graduate course will be published online (https://www.kaiyodai.ac.jp) on March 4, 2027(Thursday) at approximately 10:00 a.m. Successful applicants will also be notified by mail with the necessary forms for admission enclosed. Details of results will not be provided by telephone or other means. We will send a notification of acceptance and documents necessary for admission to the applicant.

11. Admission and Tuition Fees

(1) Entrance examination fee: ¥30,000
(2) Admission fee: ¥282,000
(3) First semester tuition fee: ¥267,900
(Annual tuition fee: ¥535,800)

Note: In the event of any revision to admission or tuition fees, the revised fee will take effect immediately for every student enrolled.

(4) Text fee, practical subject fee, Personal Accident Insurance fee for Students Pursuing Education and Research(PAS), and so on.

12. Prior Consultation for Applicants with Disabilities

If you have a disability, etc. that requires special consideration in regard to taking examinations or pursuing your studies after enrollment, please notify Admissions Section II of the Admissions Division no later than November 12, 2026 (Thursday).

If further consultation is deemed necessary, it will be organized as follows.

(1) Consultation date: A date specified by the University up to November 25, 2026 (Wednesday).
(2) Consultation method: The applicant will be asked to submit a Consultation Application Form, diagnosis, etc. If necessary, a consultation session with the applicant or his/her representative will be held at the University.

13. Inquiries

If you have any questions concerning application or admission, please contact:
